

PIVOTAL EDUCATION

BEHAVIOUR, SAFEGUARDING, TEACHING & LEARNING

Routines for Entering the School

Contributed anonymously by a Taking Care of Behaviour Online course delegate

All resources in the "Contributions" section of our resource bank have been submitted by delegates on our Taking Care of Behaviour Online course. For more information about this practical, self-paced course, please visit

<http://www.pivotaleducation.com/taking-care-of-behaviour-online/>

Routine for entering the school

Line up quietly outside on the playground – eyes on the adult on duty.

Walk down the corridor quietly and safely – remember your manners and hold the door.

Carefully put your things away – help others too.

Check the board for the morning work – if it's blank get your reading book out.

